

Aaron Just Wanted To Hang Out

My buddy Aaron called me up last Friday night and asked if my wife and I would like to hang out. He said he wanted to check out a new martini bar located down town and that he wanted to hang out at his place first. He mentioned that it was an upscale bar so to dress accordingly. I knew that Aaron had a thing for Beth and this would be a good opportunity for him to flirt with her and get a real good look at her all dressed up.

I put on a sports coat and looked pretty sharp but Beth looked amazing in the new dress that I had just bought her. She had her hair done up real nice with her nice makeup on and all of her fanciest jewelry on display. She just looked so hot! Beth was very excited as we don't really get out on the town much, she had been begging me to take her out and I thought it was going to be a great night. On the way over to Aaron's place, Beth asked what the plan was going to be. I told her that Aaron wanted to hang out at his place and then we would go out afterwards.

Well when we got up to the steps at Aaron's house, I knocked on the door and our jaws dropped as we found out what Aaron had meant when he said he wanted to "hang out." When the door swung open, Aaron was standing there buck naked, his huge cock just swinging around in our faces. Beth made some gasping sounds and just stared in awe as she uttered the words, "Oh my god." Aaron said "Hey, good to see you two, c'mon in."

I reluctantly followed Beth inside and Aaron told us to have a seat. We sat down on the love seat and Aaron went over and sat on the couch. He had a shit eating grin on his face as he took a long look at Beth. She was still locked in on his massive cock and when Aaron asked what she'd like to drink it took her a moment to regain her composure. She asked for a vodka and tonic and I went with a beer. When Aaron went to retrieve the beverages, Beth and I chatted about the whole situation. We figured that we must have got there just as he was about to jump into the shower.

When Aaron returned with the drinks he stood over us for an extra few seconds, allowing Beth to get an up close and personal look at his massive member. She certainly admired it and even commented about how surprised she was and that she had never seen one so big. I was feeling very uncomfortable and the feeling got worse when Aaron told Beth to come sit next to him on the couch. He put his arm around her, smiled and said, "You have a very beautiful wife my friend."

I was so stupid to actually thank him and then just watched as he grabbed her by the neck and pulled her over to him. They kissed very passionately for what seemed like hours, Aaron groping her beautiful body, making my wife moan like I had never heard before. Beth was stroking his growing cock and she couldn't even get her hand around the thing, it was fucking huge. The straps to her dress were pulled down, exposing her big beautiful breasts.

My cock was rock hard rendering me totally motionless. Aaron stood up on to the couch and mounted my wife's face. He began fucking her mouth causing gurgling sounds like the ones I've heard in porno movies. I had a great view in between Aaron's legs, and I could see his big hairy balls bouncing off of Beth's chin while she slobbered over the biggest cock she'd ever come across. Aaron was in total control, directing my slut wife on exactly how he wanted his dick sucked. I couldn't resist the temptations to play with myself, I unzipped my pants and let my cock spring out. I stroked furiously and came within seconds. I made a mess all over myself and they both had a laugh at me after Aaron sat back down on the couch in order to remove my wife's panties so he could fuck.

Beth was defenseless against this huge cock wielding alpha male. He spread Beth's legs apart giving me a great view of her gorgeous trimmed pussy. I cringed as Aaron's horse cock entered my wife's super tight pussy, I knew that it would never be the same after that. She screamed in ecstasy, squeezing his ass, helping to guide him deeper into her womb.

My little dick was standing at attention again and I used the previous load as lube for my new stroke job. Aaron was hammering away, causing streaking sounds from Beth's vocal chords and queefing sounds from her vagina. Then he got her into the doggy style position which again gave me a good look in between his legs again. I stroked hard, watching his balls bounce off my wife's clit as she screamed with pleasure.

Aaron screamed out as he pulled Beth close against him, obviously shooting his load deep inside of her. My cock exploded and I just laid there, enjoying the view of his throbbing balls draining all of his sperm build up right into Beth's wide open womb. I thought the whole thing was going to be over but Aaron pulled his cock out of Beth's pussy and started to jam it into her asshole. I didn't even have the strength to protest it and Beth just grunted as she had never had anal sex before. Once fully inside of her ass, Aaron mounted my wife in a sort of crouched position giving me a perfect view of her swollen red pussy as he fucked her ass.

I didn't think I could actually get another erection but the sight of his cum dripping out of my wife's vagina was the sexiest thing I have ever witnessed. It was like waterfall of white gooey jizz, bubbling and leaking out of Beth's mint looking pussy. Aaron had a good firm grip on Beth's hair and she was moaning and panting so uncontrollably that I thought she was going to hyper-ventilate.

After a good hard ass pounding, he yanked my wife by the hair so that she collapsed to her knees. He started to stroke his giant cock furiously until it exploded and he shot the biggest load I have ever seen all over my wife's face. He shoved his cock back into Beth's mouth and had her suck the rest of his cum out. It was unbelievable to think about the load he shot in her pussy earlier, it must have been tremendous! That was just too much for me to handle and I blew a third load all over myself.

Aaron laughed as he fucked Beth's mouth with his cum dripping down her forehead, nose and chin. He said, "You look like you enjoyed yourself, and I know this little slut loved it," referring to Beth of course. After that, Aaron said that he was tired and didn't feel much like going out and dragged Beth by her hair over to the door saying, "Get this little whore out of my house."

I zipped my pants up and followed them over. He opened the door and literally threw Beth out on to the grass in front of his house. I ran out to help her and Aaron slammed the door shut. I helped Beth up and we started over to the car and then the door opened and Aaron tossed out Beth's pocket book and her balled up panties then abruptly slammed the door again.

I helped Beth into the car then ran over and picked up her things and we left. It was a very traumatic experience at first but we both admitted to each other how turned on we were so we have decided to "hang out" with Aaron again real soon.
