

Black Bliss

I wanted to write to tell you about this marvellous drug my wife and I tried. It was purely experimental and to tell the truth she didn't know I had administered it to her in her coffee, but the result was absolutely astounding and lead the best all round sex session I had ever experienced.

It had all started innocently enough when my friend Dr. Jim Amamba told me about his research work on an sexual performance enhancement drugs for women. Jim and I went back years. We had even done our doctoral research in the same field. The fact that I was white and short while Jim was as black as the ace of spades and built like and American footballer made this friendship seem unlikely on the surface but we shared many common interests.

I listened as Jim explained to me that the male market for sexual stimulants like Viagra was saturated and the laboratory was developing a female derivative that enhanced women's sexual urges and performance to penetrate into an untapped sector. When Jim had first mentioned it, I had remarked half seriously that my wife was fairly frigid sexually and I for one sure would buy the product. He had raised an embarrassed eyebrow and then changed the subject so I had not persued the conversation any further. A couple of weeks later we were working out at the gym when he had begun awkwardly: "Jim, remember our conversation a couple of weeks ago..."

"Yeah..." I said encouraging but non-committed. I didn't have a clue what he was talking about but being a pure male I didn't want to let on.

"The lab is looking for couples to volunteers for the trial of "Bliss", the new sexual drug for women." He managed, half embarrassed.

My ears pricked up.

"And?" I said.

"I was ..uh... wondering whether you meant what you said the other day. I mean about you and Alice being interested in trying it out." He said.

"Maybe, what's the catch?" I replied.

"The drug is totally untested on humans so you would need to try it in steps of 5 milli-grams over a one week period and then write up the results and side effects and check in with me every day. The trial would be totally anonymous of course. To compensate you, we would pay $10,000." He added.

I argued a bit, he threw in free supply and then I closed the deal. He gave me some papers to sign and after hesitating, signed then for Alice and returned them to him. The next day I took the drug home and mixed the first dose, 5 milligrams, into her coffee. A big zero. No result. I was angry and I told Jim that his drug was useless. Reluctantly, he told me to go straight to 20mgr, so I went to 30 instead.

That night she went wild. No cold shoulder for Jim, oh no, boy oh boy. Alice just couldn't get enough sex. She got me to take her in all her holes, one at the time, including in her arse (she had never asked that before). I came as soon as I had broken her in -- we both came violently.

"I need more sex." She kept repeating.

"What like a big black rod?" I jested.

She groaned in reply, climbed on top of me and rode my cock until she came once more, leaving exhausted after the fourth round. We were at it all night long though and it was fantastic.

The next day Jim called me up concerned about the experiment. When he asked how it was going I told him it was a total wash. He sounded very displeased and said with disbelief that it was impossible.

"Come and see for yourself!" I replied.

He was embarrassed but I managed to talk him in. He hesitated, then reluctantly agreed. He had too much riding on this. He came in early and we had a few beers. What I didn't tell him is that I had mixed up Viagra in his beer...I wanted him to suffer black Bliss while he watched me screw Alice... When Alice got back we had a nice evening and she cooked us a roast. I told her Jim was moving some furniture and that he would crash out on the sofa tonight. She said that wouldn't do, he could use our bed and we would take the sofa bed. He excused himself for the trouble while she prepared him some sheets. He retired early and I helped my wife clear the dishes. I served her the chamomile tea, this time with 40 milligrams just for luck. Fifteen minutes later she was really hot, trying to take my clothes off.

"Let's sneak up and take a peek at Jim." I suggested.

In her daze she just followed me up to our bedroom. Jim was snoring softly.

"I need you, now." She moaned with eagerness. Her eyes shone with lust as she pushed me onto my back on the bed and she began rubbing her backside against me, her bottom, rubbing against my crotch. She was totally gone, man, and I had the biggest hard on ever. Alice slipped her panties off. She was rubbing her ass into my cock and I knew what she wanted. My cock sprang to attention as she swayed and pumped against me. In no time, I felt her slip a rubber on my cock. I was on my side and she was in front of me looking toward Jim. I felt her adjust her body and slip her pussy on my cock. I let my cock slide into her from the rear and she let out a guttural cry. I began to rub her clit and I could feel her juices flowing. She grabbed her breasts, kneaded them and cried: "Oh yes! Fuck me!"

I glanced over to make sure Jim was asleep. He was on his back with his eyes closed. I whispered to Alice that we should go downstairs but she only pushed back harder letting out a little moan. Since she didn't seem concerned, I began to pump back at her. Alice began moaning louder and saying, "Yes. Harder! More." I grabbed her hips and thrust my cock into her. The tightness of her pussy made me tense up and shoot my second load of the night. Alice had her eyes closed and kept pushing back on me begging for more. As I slowed her down I glanced over at Jim and saw Jim's white round eye open wide with surprise and fascination. I could see his hand pump his hard cock under the sheets. As he uncovered them, I realised Jim was sporting the longest hard on I had ever seen, except maybe on a horse, thanks to the Viagra.

I leaned forward and asked Alice if she was still horny. "Yes!" she replied with her eyes closed. Out of the blue I said, "Good, Jim wants to fuck you." I grabbed a rubber and threw it to Jim. He was out of his bed and naked in a flash. His hard cock pointed right at Alice's face. I looked at her not sure what he was going to do. All she did was lay there with a sweet smile on her face. She was too sex crazed to really notice him even when Jim came join us, his long thick ebony member sticking out in front of him ready to use. His shadow fell over her and her eyes went wide and she gasped with fear and excitement, yanking back with a start.

He drew nearer. His huge black cock was poking forward. It was a good 9 or 10 inches long, as thick as Alice's wrist, and was it was "uncut". Although it was almost fully hard, it still drooped from its sheer size and weight. The thick foreskin was pulled back slightly, revealing most of its thick bulbous head, and a clear drop of pre-cum was slowly oozing out of its half-inch long piss-slit. For a few moments neither of us spoke.

My eyes soon turned back to my wife, and in her eyes I saw something. That initial look of shock had gone and was replaced with a look of total fascination.

My wife gasped and covered her mouth in shock as Jim opened his legs exposing his incredibly long and thick penis to my young wife's eyes.

"Is your husband as big as me Alice?"

My wife gently shook her head as she stared mouth open at Jim's naked body.

"What's that I didn't hear your answer Alice?"

"No," Alice whispered.

"Am I a little bigger or much bigger?" he continued.

There was silence for a few seconds before Alice in a clear voice said: "Much bigger."

Despite it being true these words really cut me. I also noticed that Jim's penis had been growing as he had been asking my wife these questions.

"Do you want to see me hard? See how much bigger it gets?" he asked my wife.

"W-we better stop Jim I'm married," she said weakly.

"OK Alice we'll stop soon," Shane said as he moved her hand onto his large cock. And what she did next sent ice-cold shivers through my whole body. Her right hand slowly came up from her crotch, and in what seemed like slow motion, she reached for this huge cock. Her eyes darted at me a few times to check my reaction, and I'm sure she didn't see any objection from me. Closer and closer... then she touched it. Encircling her small hand around his shaft, she began to gently caress his cock. She seemed to intimately study it's every detail as she stroked it back and forth, running her slender fingers over every ridge and vein, sliding the foreskin back and forth over the fat black head. It was like a weird courting. A bird prey seduced by the snake.

His enormous cock seemed to pulse from the mere touch of Alice's fingers. Not once did she remove her eyes from this stranger's pitch black penis as she grasp it in her hand, feeling it throb from her gentle massaging. It was so easy to see that her repressed sexual desire was slowly taking over, as this strange black manhood seemed to gradually melt away her virtues. But his cock wasn't the only thing that had her undivided attention. Underneath it hung a set of balls that were the size of eggs! Pulling his scrotum into our side, she gently squeezed his huge balls, kneading them, feeling their weight in her hand.

"It is magnificent!" She exclaimed. "Oh Harry, if only you had a cock as long, thick and stiff as this..."

All of the sudden her curiosity seemed satisfied and a sense of gratification took over.

My wife's hand seemed so tiny as it rubbed his balls and growing cock. After just a few seconds of stroking his cock he was seemingly rock hard. Despite my shock I had to admit that he had an incredible cock it must have been at least 10 inches now and so thick like a bat. My wife's small hand was now stroking his long cock with long slow stokes and she was moaning as she was doing so.

"Do you like touching my cock Alice, what do you think about it?" He asked her.

"It's! It's! It's amazing, I can't believe how big it is," she stammered.

Her left quickly joined her right, and with a wild, intense look on her face, she began to jack off this stranger off! Stroke by stroke, she pulled on his cock, sliding her beautiful hands down it's full length. And ever so slowly I began to notice that with each stroke, she inched her head closer to the tip of his cock. I knew what she was thinking. She may have wanted to resist it, but I knew she wanted to slip her lips around his black cock. And no sooner than did that thought enter my mind than did she close the distance. She sat up and kissed the tip of his hard prick. Jim moved closer so that she could suck him deeper into her mouth. Jim handed Alice the condom and she tore it open. With one swift motion she moved her mouth to Jim's balls and unrolled the condom on his cock.

Jim pushed her down on the bed and knelt at her side as he began sucking on one of her nipples. I watched in awe as she slipped the end of his ebony cock into her mouth, let it slide past her lips, and sink into her warmth. Alice wrapped her lipstick-painted lips around his dick and began to suck him taking as much of his shaft into her mouth as she could, sliding it deep into the back of her throat a few times only to pull it out and slide her tongue down it's length. She began slowly kissing the base of his cock and taking long licks up his long shaft between stokes.

"You dirty slut Alice, look at you," he laughed at her. This did not put my wife off but instead just made her go wilder. She was now stroking faster plus she was kissing and licking his cock like a starved woman. Alice pushed her away from his cock; my wife looked at him with a hurt expression. He laughed out loud and with both hands he ripped open my wife's bra and pulled her towards him again. She eagerly went back to his massive rock hard tool.

She moved her lips up and down along the length of his shaft, and it began to grow even longer as she sucked him to an enormous erection. Not only did I hear this stranger moaning, but Alice was moaning as well. Of course she couldn't take much more than two-thirds of his cock into her mouth, but she seemed to delight in pulling his foreskin back and sucking on the tip of his cock.

Sitting beside her, watching this sight unfold, my hand slipped back between her legs to work on her pussy some more. But she was already there with her right hand, frantically working her fingers over her hairy pussy and rubbing her clit! She must have been wet too, because I could hear the gushing sounds her fingers made as they went in and out of her. Sensing my hand was there to take over, she quickly grasped his cock with both hands again as I plunged my finger into her pussy. And as I slipped my finger inside her, I honestly thought she had lost control of her bladder.

She was so fucking wet, her juices were almost to the point of running out of her cunt. I don't think I'd ever felt her that wet before!! Feeling her pussy literally flooded with her natural lubrication, being SO wet, and seeing how intensely she was sucking his cock; all the signs were giving her away. I knew that deep down she wanted to be fucked by this cock. Her mouth would occasionally slip off of his dick, and she would smile at him. About the third time this happened, Jim swung his hips back and forth, slapping his dick against her cheeks. She got it back in her mouth and looked in his eyes as she sucked him. Jim said: "Slut, do you love my black dick?"

With his dick still in her mouth, she nodded yes.

He asked: "More than your husband's? Because it's thicker? And I know you love it cause it's blacker,"

He was pulling and pinching her other nipple so hard I thought he would pull it off. Alice only moaned in pleasure. And as if this stranger was sensing her mood as well, he suddenly withdrew his wet cock from the hole and Alice's grasp. I swear she had the look on her face of that of a kid who had just had her candy stolen. The condom glistened from my wife's saliva. Alice stared at his protected cock for a few seconds before she gingerly reached out for it and grasped it in her hands.

"Babe, I think he wants to fuck you!" I said.

"Nooo... I... I can't" she stammered.

Thrusting a finger into her sloppy wet pussy I replied, "Uh-huh, but your cunt is giving you away... you know you want that huge cock inside you... filling you up like you've never been filled before!" I continued by adding, "Just think about how good that huge, hot black cock will feel deep inside your pussy!"

"Nooo.... I can't do this." she moaned in desperation.

She looked at me with eyes that were filled with lust, but at the same time eyes begging for me to stop. She put up a feeble struggle as I lifted her skirt up over her waist.

"Nooo... I can't do this..." She moaned. But, she didn't resist at all when I turned her onto her back, ass toward the Jim and had her bend over.

"Fuck me please. I need to feel that big cock inside me," she begged.

"Is it bigger than your husband's penis Alice?"

"You know it is, it's twice as long and twice as thick. Please fuck me!"

He laughed and slowly began to push himself into my wife from behind.

I placed her hands on my knees allowing her to support herself in this position. Not giving her time to think about it, I quickly pushed her back so that her legs were straddling his cock. And as she moved into position I grasped the huge black cock and pressed it up against her wet crotch centering the helmet of his prick at the entrance of her cunt. I looked at Jim's monster cock, nearly a foot long and as thick as my wrist. I didn't see how it could ever fit into my wife's little body... it would have to stretch her and reach past her navel!

She tried to hold back a deep moan, but she couldn't. I then pressed his hot long dark shaft up between her pink pussy lips. She inhaled deeply as she felt his hot, hard cock touch her cunt, poised at the opening of her pussy and that was all I needed from her. Not wasting time, I positioning its huge thick head up between her pussy lips.

"Ummmmmmmm..... Noooo... PLEASE! No!"

Inside her I knew there was a battle going on between her strict morals and her pure sexual lust. But I knew what the outcome of that battle would be. Holding his cock next to her, pressing against her opening I whispered, "Ohhh Baby! Feel that huge black cock next to your cunt... Do it!! Take it inside you!!"

That was all it took. I could feel her whole body shudder and I could sense her caving in to her primal craving. She was high on drugs and very horny. Using my index finger, I pushed the end of his cock into her cunt

"There baby, here we go, you must feel it opening you up. Savour the feeling..."

She smiled but her grip on my hand tightened for a moment and her body stiffened as the massive cock spread her cunt-lips and he began to penetrate her. He eagerly pushed forward, and inch by inch, I felt his cock slowly slip up into my wife! She shuddered as she felt the big prick going deeper and deeper. Alice pushed and pushed as if she was having a baby until somehow, that giant purple head of his long dark dong forced it's way into her tiny, distended pussy. My wife let out a small cry, obviously as the huge cock entered her pussy: "Oh, that feels so fucking good stretching my tight white cunt!"

He turned to me: "What do you think, still so keen to see me to fuck her? I'm only about an inch in, you want to try to stop me or do you want to see your fantasy so much that you will take the risk?" He taunted.

She stopped half way there and closed her eyes for a moment, getting used to the girth, then once more started to push. Shaking with excitement, I pushed on his arse firmly and was greeted by a scream from my wife as he went deep into her to the root.

"Oh God!" she squealed. "He's right, you know, the evil bastard. I'm so fertile, especially this week. Make sure he has protection, that he wears a condom. You've got your wish, I couldn't stop now, I must have a man in me even him but make him be careful."

"Tough luck, you'd need an army to pull me out of here now. I hate rubbers, they spoil all the fun. If it comes off I think you would make a lovely mother for my kid. You're not the sort to get rid of it."

Her pussy soon widened to accommodate him and she began to relax. I watched spellbound, partly dazzled by the raw beauty of two people in the throes of the sex act, and partly amazed that I was watching someone else fuck my wife - even if, with her approval, I had planned and arranged the whole thing.

Alice started bobbing up and down slowly, coating Jim's incredible shaft with her glistening juices. Each time she went down, she managed to take a bit more of it. I was fascinated... never in my life had I seen such a sight! Finally, he pushed the entire length of his black manhood into her cunt in one smooth motion. She was dazed as she cried out in pleasure. His balls slapped against her as the full length of that cock filled her pussy. It was an incredible sensation. She must have been so turned with it real deep in her where her vaginal muscles could grip it all nice and tight.

He paused briefly before withdrawing the black pole he had inserted into her! His cock glistened with her moistness. He withdrew almost completely, I could see the crown of that black cock almost come out of her briefly, then he thrust it back into her. Alice groaned loudly in satisfaction as she simultaneously thrust her hips forward to meet his attack. Then he pulled it out quickly and thrust back into her. She was loosing control, moaning in pleasure. And as he slid inside her, I all but had to hold Alice up as she became "one" with him, emitting a deep guttural groan as he entered her.

She looked up at me. I could see the lust in her eyes... she was in another world. She reached one hand around the back of my head and pulled my face to hers, kissing me. I couldn't believe what I was seeing... my tiny red-haired wife, no bigger than the average 12-year-old, had just taken a black cock the size of a salami into her pussy... to the hilt, no less. With a sudden twinge, I realized that her tiny pink pussy would quite probably never be the same.

He began to hump her furiously and in spite of herself she began to respond, her breathing deepened and she started to make little whimpering sounds. Her arms crept around him and she lifted her lips to his now.

Alice gasped: "Oh my GOD! Jim! He's bigger than anything I ever had! Oh shit! Oh my God! You're so fucking big! Oh please! Easy!" Alice spread her legs. Slowly his cock moved in and out of Alice's pussy making little plopping sounds as he took it out. Alice moaned: "Oh yes Jim. Fuck me like that..." Her encouragement was all he needed to pick up the pace. He began to buck, pumping his cock in and out of my wife and she began to push her cunt onto his cock, responding to his thrusts and fucking back at him. Alice's hands were on his butt pulling the black cock deeper into with each thrust.

He paused briefly before withdrawing the black pole he had inserted into her! His cock glistened with her moistness. He withdrew almost completely, I could see the crown of that black cock almost come out of her briefly, then he thrust it back into her. Alice groaned loudly in satisfaction as she simultaneously thrust her hips forward to meet his attack.

Reaching into the front of her blouse, I flipped her bra down, and once again I had the surprise of my life. Maybe it was only the moment, but I swear I'd never felt my wife's nipples so hard and erect! They were literally so hard and so sensitive I knew she didn't want me playing with them so I left them alone. But that didn't stop me from reaching back between her legs to rub her clit. The instant I touched her clit, her head reared back and she let out a deep moan.

I was feeling sort of left out, and wanting to be part of the action I decided to help her get off by massaging her clit. And as I did so, I couldn't resist the temptation to move my finger back and feel the thick black cock that was pumping my wife. On the next stroke, I let my middle finger wonder back. And as he took his next stroke, my fingertip rubbed along the underside of his cock. I heard him moan "Yesssss!" as I did so, making it obvious he liked the added sensation.

It dawned on me that since he was unable to get all of his cock inside Alice's pussy, I assumed he might like a bit of added stimulation, especially at the base of his cock. Reaching back I let my fingers, lubricated with Alice's pussy juices, ride across the base of his cock as he stroked. Once more he moaned in gratitude, and I responded by wrapping my thumb and index finger around the base of his cock and squeezing him tight. It never dawned on me what would be the result of my doing this. As he withdrew on his next stroke, I felt the rim of his condom catch in my grasp. And before I could release my grip, his condom had slid half way down his cock.

You would think that as he pushed inside her the next time, it would have slipped back down his cock, but that was not the case. He didn't miss a thrust, and with the next several strokes, I did my best to try and slide it back down his cock. But the more I tried, the more it seemed to work it's way closer to the head of his cock. Then in an instant it slid completely off his cock, was poked up into her cunt for a stroke or two, then I felt his wet, wadded up condom drop into my cupped hand. Alice had no clue as to what happened. I was certainly aware of it, but so was Jim. As he felt his cock, now unsheathed, slide up into Alice's pussy, he moaned.

I had every reason in the world to stop everything right then and there and put the rubber back on this guy before continuing. But for some reason I didn't. Instead, I simply sat there holding his discarded rubber and stared at the sight in front of me. Only then did it hit me as to what I was really watching. I was witnessing my wife, performing a filthy sexual act that I would have never dreamed of her doing, not even in my wildest of dreams.

She was an honest virgin until our wedding night, and during all the years of our marriage, I know she had never strayed. She was the "textbook" wife and mother, with spotless morals. Yet here she was, in a perverted situation I never imagined her in. I couldn't believe this was the same woman I'd married! I couldn't believe I was seeing her bent over, pressing her full arse and thighs up against a negro. Her face contorted in erotic ecstasy as she was totally lost in the sensation of having her pussy serviced by a huge black cock and doing her best to get his cock deeper inside her.

And as I looked on, I made the stark realization as to why I didn't pause their copulating to put his condom back on. As hard as it was to admit it, I was incredibly turned on over the risk of her being impregnated! And the fact that this strange black man had his bare cock inside my wife's unprotected pussy, frothing and pumping his juices in her stretched snatch, and that she was in the most fertile part of her period, it only fuelled my desire beyond imagination. As much as I tried to suppress it I couldn't. In the heat of that instant, all logic and clear thought had vanished from my mind. I yanked HARD on my cock as it was so very clear what I wanted. I wanted Jim to squirt his sperm deep inside my wife, and impregnate her with his black baby!

That thought was suddenly interrupted by Alice's heavy, loud moans. Only then did it dawn on me that I had been in sort of a trance, totally unaware of how much time had passed. Sensing she was almost to orgasm, I quickly reached between her legs and began to massage her clit.

"Oh yes!" Alice cried. "Make me cum, stretch my cunt so that only a black man will do! Watch him David, watch him stretch your wife so wide, that your cock wouldn't touch the sides even if you were allowed in!"

The talk combined with the rigorous fucking was exciting me beyond belief, but I hated myself for it, and I was increasingly concerned that it was obvious I had lost my wife sexually forever. I was shaken out of my thoughts as my wife began to show all the signs of an oncoming, intense orgasm. Jim sensing her peak ploughed into her clutching hole, withdrawing all the way, and returning balls deep on each stroke. I guessed she had come several times by now.

As I lay on the other bed I found I couldn't move. I had never seen two people have sex before, let alone one who was my partner. Time seemed to stand still and all I could do was watch that cock plunge in and out of Alice. Jim's cock glistened in the soft light from Alice's cunt juices. I could smell her pussy, this time not as a participant.

Jim put her on her side facing me and entered her from behind. Her legs were closed and I couldn't see his cock go into her. I asked her to lift her leg so I could see her pussy get filled by the cock she was begging for. She lifted a leg back over Jim and I got a clear view of her hungry cunt taking what it wanted. Jim had reached both hands around in front and was squeezing Alice's tits. As she has small ones, Jim's hands completely covered them from view but I could tell he was using as much pressure on them as he could. With this grip on her body he could move her roughly up and down on his cock.

She pulled my head towards her and started kissing me deeply and passionately as Jim fucked her silly. Alice was furiously rubbing her clit and she brought herself to a wild orgasm, babbling to herself about fucking and cumming and big nigger cocks. I was entranced to see her respond to this brutal fucking. I leaned and showered kisses onto her as she thrust her tongue into my mouth and gripped us both frantically. Jim could take no more and he too joined her babbling as he said: "Oh fuck Alice. You're making me cum, you little whore! Oh Babe, hear it comes, its good stuff, worth waiting for. So were you, I didn't expect to get this fuck but it's the best yet. I'm gonna fill your slutty cunt and give you a black baby! Oh yeah! I want to make you pregnant!"

With a last deep thrust he rammed his cock home and came hard and deep into her now well-fucked cunt. Alice was rubbing her clit faster and harder in time with his strokes. He continued with little stabs into her cunt, instinctively trying to get as deep into her as he could. His frantic thrusting induced her climax and her orgasm swept uncontrollably through her. While Alice was in the peak of her orgasm, he delivered one final... almost brutal thrust. With that, I knew that his veined cock had sank up into the depths of my wife's vagina one last time, and hold motionless. I had a split second to think about grabbing his cock and yanking out of her... But I didn't. She shuddered as his sperm pumped between her legs and then spilled out of her overfilled cunt and ran down between her thighs.

Jim could feel her cunt pulling at him with strong spasms and contractions, milking him, sucking his strong spunk deep into her in spite of everything she had said. He flooded her womb entrance where the black sperm could get quickly to work to make a kid closed. It was the best time of the month for her to fall for a kid.

I was so turned on watching her so wantonly gripped by such forbidden pleasure. I was thrilled to watch her lose control and cum so promiscuously. I watched him pumping in and out of her cunt lips as the wrapped around his big prick so recklessly and saw her cuntal love juice squeezed out of her by his pumping.

I stroked her belly and mound as it convulsed in pleasure. I loved her so much. She was so sexy and desirable. Over and over again, Jim's black cock pulsed and ejaculated his sperm inside my wife's pussy, no doubt flooding her 35 yr. old womanhood full of what I knew could result in a black baby. And as he continued to gush inside her, I found myself frantically rubbing her clit, extending her orgasm to mask any sensation she might feel of her being filled with his hot semen. I wouldn't have believed it possible that a guy could cum so much, but for what seemed like a solid 15 seconds, he kept his cock planted deep inside my wife, pumping spurt after spurt of his cum inside her. All of the sudden it was over... quiet except for Alice's heavy breathing.

I felt Alice's body relax, and at the same instant I felt a hot, sticky fluid covering my fingers as the stranger withdrew his spent cock from my wife. It ran down her legs and made a huge mess on the sheets, leaving them soiled and soaked. For a moment I watched her lying on her back in all the spunk on the soaking sheets. I wanted to slide my half erect cock right into her pussy up to the base and start pumping it into her. I crawled over to her and she just looked at me and smiled. My wife just had the biggest smile on her face. She looked like a cat that had just swallowed a canary. She said: "Oh God. He's so good!"

She reached behind her and gently stroked Jim's cock as he pulled back from her. When he was soft enough, she leaned back onto me.

I pulled my prick out and slid it into her mouth. She smiled and took it deep, sucking and slurping on it. I started to withdraw as I began to cum, knowing she normally hates the taste of cum in her mouth but she sucked me back in deep and licked and swallowed until I was sucked dry.

We had sex six more times that evening and each time Jim came like crazy in my wife's private parts. I crawled back into Jim's bed and fell asleep. My last memory was Alice getting rubbed off by Jim while they kissed passionately. In the morning I awoke to Alice crawling in bed with me. Jim had left for a morning basketball game. It seemed that Jim fucked her once again during the night and again in the morning before he left for his game. We talked about what happened. It had never happened before but she said it had always been a fantasy of hers. In fact, she wondered why it took so long for us to do it to her.

I began licking out the residue of her lover's cum.

"I hope you like the taste," my wife said. "Because I am going to be seeing a lot more of Jim in future.

She shocked me when she said she wanted to fuck both of us again. The idea of having two guys whenever she wanted them was very appealing to her. She assured me that she loved only me and hoped it wouldn't jeopardize our marriage. I told her it wouldn't.

Although we didn't use the drug again after that, especially after Alice forced a confession out of me, Jim still comes over a couple of times a week to service my wife. I had assumed that when he pulled his cock out of her sweet pussy it would all be over and she would still be all mine. I was wrong. She seems to have grown addicted to the black bliss.
