

My Dream Life

It started as a fantasy and has grown into my life. I think about women all the time. I think about my fetishes all the time. I am a successful A-type business leader but in reality since childhood I have been drawn to the lifestyle of a female dominated relationships. I was raised in a household of older women where my mother and older sister dominated me. As a result I am most aroused by femdom related sexual activities. I have come to know what I like and why. It is who I am and I can not change that. I admit I am a chronic masturbater. I can not control myself or my urges. I yearn for a strong willed woman who can both dominate me into submission and is very aroused at my nymphomaniac behaviors, fetishes and obsessions. I would like a woman to take personal ownership of my cock and my sex life and focus it on pleasing her. I would like her to encourage my obsessive behaviors and explore my fetishes with her as the center of our attention. I want to worship her, take care of her and love her. I want her to be the mother of my children and the holder of my heart. Through my journeys I have stumbled upon images that arouse me intensely and I have a few to show you today. If they arouse you too then maybe we should talk...

I asked out the librarian, because she looked so hot. On our first date, she told me that she was a little bit kinky. I never dreamed that six months later I'd be locked in an inescapable chastity belt and beaten regularly with her cane. How did I ever get so lucky?

I have always been aroused by the innocent looking librarian who secretly is a dominating vixen. They always say its the ones you least expect.

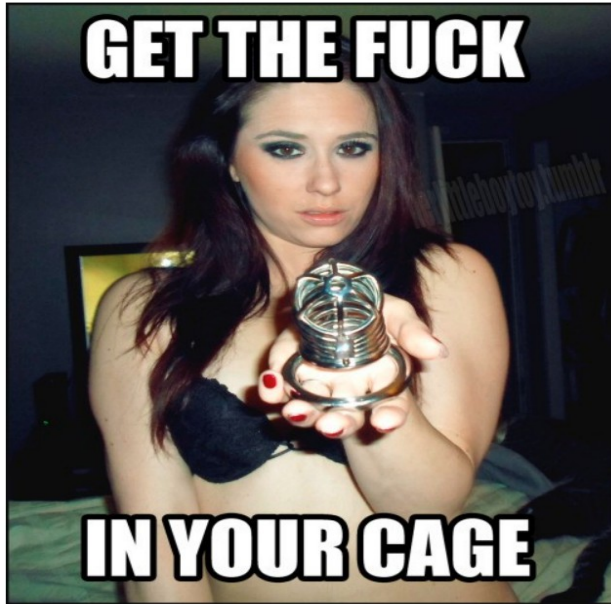

Waiting patiently at home for you after a long day, I am both excited and a little scared of you as you walk in that door.

You didn't think I'd go this far with your fantasy, did you? I love seeing you bound and helpless and you have gotten really good with your tongue. Now, I want a really good orgasm or I'll release some of the pictures I've taken of you online. Oh I love seeing the look of fear in your eyes.

While I am not really 'into' cross dressing, seeing images like this really turns me on. The threat of black-male is so hot & an integral part of my fantasy.

When I saw this image I nearly creamed my pants. I really like the idea of orally servicing women. I love the idea of you tying me down and just having fun. I am not into pain, but if the threat of leaking compromising photos gets me to give you more powerful orgasms then I am all for it.

I know you want this, I can see it in your eyes. You know I want this, you know I need this. Maybe a twisted fantasy but if we are two consenting adults, who is to criticize.

In our fantasy world, I have lost all choice. I am yours and more importantly, your word is my command. You want official possession of my manhood and you take it.

Once 'broken in', we settle into our new life so easily, including daily 'training'.

Images like this just make me melt. It is possible to find a women who would like to orgasm every day?

Mistress believes that intensive oral service is an essential element of chastity training. At first you loved it, and eagerly awaiting the chance to bury your face in her soft, wet pussy. As your training went on, you have come to dread it. Now you spend hours with your head between her legs, hearing Mistress cry out in ecstasy as orgasm after orgasm crashes through her body and the pain in your swollen testicles gets worse.

When she told me she was busy during the day, I thought she was working not entertaining her friends. When I came home and she wanted me to eat her out immediately, saying she had been thinking about me all day, I thought that was why she was so wet.

Now that we are married, she has my cock locked up in a cage and just sends me pictures of what she is doing so I know she is in need of a thorough cleaning. Maybe if I do a good enough job, she will try and find the key that she "lost" two weeks ago.....

My first wife cheated on me (she was hot so it made sense). I loved her a lot so cuckolding became part of my life. She was really beautiful and picturing some stud (and there were many) fucking her became a big part of our sex life.

As a result, images like this really turn me on. Its not so much you cheating as it is how you like forcing me to be an active participant.....so sexy.

You have no choice, cucky. Kiss her feet and accept her rule...

I have an intense foot fetish, so an image like this makes me dizzy. I think it stems from my childhood and the very strict women in my life at the time.

For some reason being forced to kneel at a stern woman's perfectly manicured feet arouses me immensely, being forced to worship them – orgasmic.

The caption coupled with the image captures such a hot element of the femdom life and so I included it as an image that I would love to be able to live out in real life.

You are strict but we both know it is what we want and need. I see the arousal in your eyes and that in itself makes me want to perform more for you.

I love you for your strength in being able to control me and through that strength I live in a constant state of anticipation / frustration / fear / arousal.

You love seeing it in me and I love you keeping me in this state – its a win win scenario for everyone.

Er, I think you'll find that you'll get some relief when I decide to give it you, regardless of how much you appear to be leaking. Besides real girls end up with wet sticky panties when they're horny & frustrated so I see no reason to view your current situation as anything other than one more positive step in your girly conditioning.

My mistress is fair. She does let me 'free' but there is always a cost. And of course, she knows my weaknesses and takes full advantage.

The deal is if you can hold out an hour you get a week belt free! She's never lost yet.

This is a typical Friday night for my wife and I. We go to the Cuckold's Club and she fucks and sucks every hung Black Man in the place while I prance around serving drinks. I'm dressed in a pink tinkerbell costume and must speak with a lisp and call all the men Sir and all the women Ma'am. When we get home later I'll have to lick and suck all of the thick stale cum from her pussy and ass. When she first suggested we try the club I thought I'd be more involved in the sex part but with my penis locked in a cage and the constant verbal humiliation from her black lovers, I think I'm turning into a sissy.

Its tough living in a constant state of arousal. Always thinking about her.

How to serve her better, how to make her happy but it is so worth it. I love her and I love to see her sexually fulfilled.

You like it when I tell you about his big cock don't you? Do you want to hear what he did to me?

Indeed, at home later that night she did let me out of my chastity. But like before, for the hour (she hasn't lost the bet yet!) she works me over until I simply can't hold out any longer and have a mind-blowing orgasm only my mistress could give me.

You are just adorable! Kneeling so patiently waiting for me to tell you what I want...

I want a story. I want you to tell me a story. Something so kinky and sexy that I become visibly moist. I want you swelling in your chastity cage as you tell me the next dirty thing. Then, ... maybe then ...

I'll let you lick me.

Our intimate times are always special. I love to make her cum and she loves the fantasies I am constantly thinking about while under her control.....so yummy....this is our life....

I hope you have enjoyed my little picture story. I wonder if there are any women out there in the world who find this as arousing as I do. I sure hope Femdoming likes this piece and puts it on their site as it might help me get one step closer to meeting that woman of my dreams.
