

Tricked for the Treat

Ray rushed up the stairs to his bedroom anxious to get there and angry at his two idiotic friends for keeping him from his night of freaky sex with his wife. His mind angrily wondering what they could have been thinking, stopping by at this time of the night, they knew he had plans. He had met them for lunch and while waiting for the pizza he couldn't help but brag about how he had finally come up with a foolproof plan on how to have his way with his wife Debra. He was so excited he couldn't keep it to himself and had shared his plan with both of them. He and Debra had made similar plans the previous Halloween, but after dragging the kids around the neighborhood they had dropped them off at his parents' house and returned home to relieve his father who had been answering the door for them while they took the kids trick or treating. His father had given out all the candy they had, and after finding a bag of foil wrapped condoms in the cabinet handed those out believing them to be foil wrapped chocolate coins. The fiasco that followed had been enough to kill Debra's mood and after an evening of watching her run around dressed as a flight attendant Ray had to relieve himself with a cold shower.

This year he had talked her into wearing a sexy nurse outfit complete with the cute little cap. To ensure she couldn't change her mind he struck a deal with her and had done a laundry list of chores including the laundry. In exchange she had agreed to be his helpless victim a nurse captured by the evil Dr. Hyde, Ray's Halloween costume. He had a written contract with the Misses guaranteeing him he would be allowed to cuff and ravage her while in costume as long as he wanted in exchange for the lengthy list of chores he had spent the last week finishing. He couldn't help but brag about how from 11:00 PM till he finished she would be his insisting he had thought of everything. He had forgone having his father answer the door for them this year and convinced Debra it would be better for everyone if they just turned the light off this year after the previous year's fiasco. He had stopped by the local novelty store and bought a pair of furry handcuffs, blindfold, ball gag and sensual body oils. He had stopped at the liquor store and bought her favorite wine, Vodka and orange juice. He then told them of his plans to grab dinner on his way home and fill her glass full of wine. He would see to it that she finished the bottle of wine and try and coax her to have a screw driver or two, her favorite hard drink. He bragged how he was throwing the cuffs and gag on her at 11:00 o'clock sharp and wouldn't stop until he couldn't move. He told them he would use the blindfold if she gave him her usual angry look even pulling the items from the bag under the table to show his friends.

Then at 7 minutes past eleven the door bell hand rung. Ray was pissed he had the house lights off and the trick-or-treaters should have all been home by now, the night had gone exactly as Ray had planned up to that point. Debra had just walked out of the bathroom minutes earlier and began seductively leaning against the door-frame as sexily as she could. He took in the sight of his young wife her dark red hair pinned neatly under the nurses cap the white cloth of the uniform clinging to her body accentuating her full breast, tight stomach, round hips and stopping several inches above her knee showing off her sexy legs. At only 5' 2" tall she was tiny but standing in the doorway in the stiletto heels her hundred and two pound body was smoking hot. She had started running her leg against the door frame and to Ray she looked like a runway model. Ray had just moved over to her as menacingly as possible playing the part of the evil Dr. Hyde and pulled her arms behind her back he held them there with one hand and moved the other over her firm chest. Squeezing them gently thru the fabric and causing her to struggle weakly. He pulled his hand back and fished the furry handcuffs from his costumes pocket he slipped them around her wrist causing her to struggle even more and causing her to playfully cry out "Oh no now I'm helpless at the hands of a mad man!" he couldn't have been happier to have her play along.

Keeping in character he twirled her around and then cupping her ass he lifted her off her feet and slung her gently over his shoulder. Debra playfully cried out as Ray groped her ass as he slowly carried her to the bed. He had just began the process of repositioning her on his shoulder in order to toss her on the bed when the first ring of the doorbell happened. He decided to ignore it and continued his playful roll playing as he tossed her on the bed while doing his best evil laugh when the second ring echoed thru the room. Then five more rings in quick succession.

"Ray you better uncuff me and see who it is." Debra said breaking character and acting annoyed by the interruption. Ray grew annoyed as well as he saw the beginning of the end of his perfect night. "No they'll go away Deb just ignore it." He said and began to climb on the bed on top of her as the next furry of rings began echoing throughout the house.

"Ray it could be your parents. Maybe something is wrong with the kids!" Debra said now more annoyed

"Deb they would have called and Dad has a key. Whoever it is will go away." He said reaching for her chest as the doorbell began ringing insistently followed by a loud knocking on the door.

"Ray!" Debra said in an almost angry voice.

"I'll be right back! I am going to get rid of them." Ray said jumping off the bed and bounding for the door.

"Ray uncuff me first." Debra called out.

"I'll be right back!" he said not willing to let her go, afraid if he did he would lose this opportunity. He flew down the steps determined to get rid of the interruption before it ruined his night.

He made it to the door and after undoing the deadbolt yanked it open angrily only to find Andy and Gianni standing at the door looking annoyed. They started in with him immediately wanting to know what took him so long and bitching about how they had been ringing the doorbell forever.

Ray tried to shut them up but they went on and on. He knew immediately they had been drinking, smelling the booze the moment he opened the door. He then learned they had come by because they couldn't get their car started and needed a jump. He told them they would have to go ask his dad. They wanted to know why he seemed so annoyed and he had to remind them he had plans. The timing could not have been better as Debra called out for Ray asking him if everything was okay. He screamed up telling her yes everything was fine and he would be up in just a minute.

Gianni then told him they had stopped by his father's house first and they "really" couldn't go back there now. Besides he said Ray's father told them Ray had his cables anyway. Ray wasn't in the mood to argue and grabbed his keys. He told them to get in the car. Gianni then went on to explain they already had someone there willing to give them the jump. Ray thought he heard the first good news of the night and rushed to the garage to get the cables hoping to get rid of them quickly. Grabbing the cables Ray returned to find Andy laid out on the couch with Gianni in the recliner. "Here you go!" he said dropping the cables in Gianni's lap before opening the door to show them out. Then the other shoe dropped as Gianni explained they would need Ray to drive the car back to his place for them to park it for the night each man admitting they were too drunk to drive themselves.

Ray begged them to leave it for the night and offered to call them a cab only to learn they had somehow parked it illegally and if they didn't move it quickly it would get towed to the impound. Seeing no other choice and foolishly believing them when Gianni said it was only a couple blocks away Ray reluctantly agreed to help out his two old friends telling them "Let's go and get this over with!" Just as they started out the door Gianni hunched over and almost vomited in Ray's bushes. He then straightened and announced he had to go to the bathroom and that they should go on without him claiming he could be a while before rushing back in the house and darting into the downstairs bathroom.

While waiting for him to return Andy suggested Ray take off the costume concerned it might get dirty. Ray was now so angry he couldn't think straight and took off the coat and gloves tossing them next to his hat and scarf that he had discarded earlier. Finally Andy convinced Ray they should just go claiming they would be back before Gianni got out.

So the journey began Ray followed his stumbling friend eight blocks up then two blocks over, one block down to more blocks over before finally Andy admitted he was lost. They walked on as Andy insisted he could find it. Then, just when Ray had reached his wits end and demanded they return to his house to have Gianni show them the way, Andy remembered he had the address to the party written down on a paper in his pocket. Ray checked the address and determined they had made a wrong turn and went the wrong way. Sadly he knew it was still closer to the car than it was to go back home so on they went in the direction of the car. A block from the address Andy remembered he didn't have the keys, Gianni did. Even if they made it to the car they would still not be able to retrieve the vehicle.

Andy couldn't stop apologizing on the way back to Ray's as he complained about how tired he was. Ray, already mad as hell at his friends, grew even more annoyed by how slow his friend was walking. The drunken man moved at a snail's pace back to Ray's house. The pair finally made it back over an hour after they had left.

Ray knowing he was in serious trouble with Debra found Gianni waiting for him in the recliner he told Gianni he would be right back he just had to check on Debra. Gianni warned against it telling him Debra had hollered down about half an hour ago saying something about how she had found the keys and was going to sleep. He also mentioned she sounded awfully pissed.

Ray knew better than to go upstairs and wake her so he followed Gianni out the door after begging Andy to stay behind knowing he would slow them down. The trip back to the car had gone much smoother. They made it to the car in just fifteen minutes of walking. Then they waited twenty minutes for the night cook at the diner who had agreed to give them a jump if they came back with a sober driver. Finally he finished the orders he had and came out to help them jump start the car. The process took another twenty minutes, Ray in Gianni's car the cook in the other and Gianni with his head buried under the hood of his car, before it finally started and ran great. Ray should have known something was up when he ignorantly killed the engine just after they closed the hood. He had popped the clutch too quickly and killed it. But he immediately restarted it and waited for Gianni to get in the car. Finally they returned to his house parking the car in the driveway because a cab was parked at the curb in front of his house. Gianni headed straight for the cab thanking Ray for all his help and ensuring him he would come by first thing in the morning to get the car.

What Ray didn't know after having left Debra cuffed on the bed over two hours ago was that Gianni had waited to hear the front door close. He then rushed out of the bathroom into the kitchen opening the backdoor, then back into the living room grabbing Ray's costume jacket, hat, scarf and gloves before bounding up the stairs a blindfold in hand. Once at the top of the stairs he turned off the stairway light.

He waited outside the door to catch his breath and steady himself as he took his sweater off and slipped the leather gloves and jacket on. He waited in the dark hallway giving his eyes time to adjust to the darkness. He had taken the time in the bathroom downstairs to wash off the alcohol he had splashed on himself for Ray's benefit and apply a fresh dabble of Ray's cologne for Debra's benefit. He quietly opened the door only a crack careful to make no sound and reaching in with his gloved hand turned off the bedroom light.

"Ray hurry! What took you so long? My arms are killing me. Hurry up and take these cuffs off." Debra said as soon as the lights went off.

Gianni placed the hat Ray had worn earlier in the evening on his head and wrapped the scarf around his face before he entered the room leaving the door cracked open an inch before quickly moving to the bound young mother on the bed. He could see Debra fairly well and hidden in the costume with the scarf covering his face he hoped she would not recognize him before he got the blindfold on. Within 20 seconds of entering the bedroom he had slipped the blindfold over Debra's eyes. He found her lying on her side on the bed her arms still cuffed behind her back her head almost hanging off her side of the mattress just where Ray had left her.

"Ray come on I have been laying her waiting and my arms are hurting, just uncuff me and we can try it again some other time. Who was at the door anyway, what took so long?" Debra said, annoyed by the blindfold.

Gianni wasn't about to answer but had planned on having to gag her before he left anyway so he pulled the ball gag from the jackets pocket and pressed it to her lips.

"Stop OK stop I'll be quiet. I'll be a good victim Doctor just don't gag me OK Doctor." She said hoping to stop him from gagging her. She knew how determined Ray was to have his fantasy night, that was apparent by how hard he had worked to complete her honey do list.

Gianni thought about it for a second and deciding he hadn't wanted to gag her yet anyway and concerned she might be able to see under the blindfold he pulled the scarf from his neck and carefully doubled it over and placed it over her eyes and began pulling it behind her head.

"Ray what are you doing you already put a blindfold on you need to hurry up I am hurting here. My arms are hurting my wrists are hurting. Furry cuffs or not they aren't comfortable you try wearing them for the night and see how your wrist feel." Debra began rambling as Gianni tied the scarf securely around her head.

He then moved his gloved hand to her lips. She got the hint immediately and shut up still not wanting a gag. Gianni had just stepped back from the bed when the light in the bedroom came on. He looked up to see his friend Bernie standing in the doorway holding the video camera and tripod in one hand a flash light in the other with a digital camera dangling from his neck. Gianni gave him the thumbs up sign then placed his finger over his lips warning Bernie to be quiet.

Gianni then eagerly moved his right hand to Debra's chest and began squeezing her firm breast thru the uniform just as Ray had earlier. He loved the feel of her chest and soon had both hands feeling up her chest groping and squeezing them taking his time enjoying the feel. Looking up he saw Bernie had got the video camera setup up and was zooming in on the young mother.

Knowing time was of the essence and not wanting to miss out on any of his many desires with the young woman under him he stepped back again and removed his pants, the costume jacket and hat allowing them all to fall to the floor. His boxers went next followed by the gloves. Now he stood over Debra in just a t-shirt with a hard cock dangling from his waist.

He looked to Bernie to ensure he was getting this before he stepped up and presented his cock to Debra's mouth. Debra moved her head violently from side to side trying to avoid his cock and mumbling no several times before he finally forced it in her mouth. He worked it in and out slowly the first two minutes savoring the experience while trying to keep his hands out of the way of the camera. After two minutes he and Debra had established a rhythm as he worked his phallus in and out of her warm mouth.

Debra sucked on Gianni's cock deciding to cooperate and try to get this over with as soon as possible. She had sucked cock in high school and college but had never given Ray the pleasure before. She didn't want him to think of her as something less than a wife and equal partner. It wasn't that bad she decided they had three children and Ray followed her around like a puppy even after all these years of marriage so why not throw him a bone. He had done so much and he usually didn't last long any way. She just hoped he had the good since to pull out before he came.

As Debra continued sucking his cock Gianni's hands returned to her body. After moving over her chest and stomach several times he began working on the buttons on the uniform undoing them one by one starting at the top and working his way down. Soon he had all the buttons undone and worked the costume open pulling it open and trying to force it down her arms. Finally he had worked the tiny uniform out of the way exposing her gorgeous body now covered only by a lacy white bra and sexy white panties. Gianni struggled to keep his cock buried in her mouth as he worked her panties down her legs.

With her panties completely off one leg and dangling from the other Gianni pulled his cock free from her mouth and pushed her onto her back in the middle of the bed. He moved back and allowed Bernie to snap several stills with the digital camera.

"Ray that better not be what I think it is! I swear if you're taking pictures again." She began. Gianni reached down and picked up one of the leather gloves. "You already took your pictures and I made the movie with you that reminds me you have to find a better place to hide that stuff. Last week Allie took that box from the closet thinking it had a new DVD player in it she wanted to hook it up in here." Gianni then slapped her bra covered chest with the leather glove making a loud slap.

"OH! I am just glad I got it before she opened it and found those pictures and..." she yelped but fell silent after the second slap on her other breast. After finally silencing her Gianni then grabbed her bra and pulled lifting her off the bed. With her up he reached behind her and undid her bra then dropped her back to the bed before pulling the bra off her by pulling the straps completely out. With her now totally exposed to him Gianni climbed on the bed between her legs and waited. Bernie quickly worked to move the camera to a different position and motioned he was ready.

Gianni then dove in burying his face in her sweet triangle. His tongue dove in deep causing Debra to arch her back screaming out both shock and pleasure.

"Oh my God!!!!!!!!!! Ray what's gotten into you ohhhh myyyyy goddddddd!!!!!!" she shuddered as she began wiggling her hips from side to side around his face now buried in between her thighs. Debra vocalized many incoherent sounds before Gianni had satisfied his desire to eat her out.

He pulled back and observed her panting for several seconds before moving into position between her now damp thighs.

Gianni wasted no more time and speared into Debra with his rigid cock.

"OH GOD!" RAY!!!!" She grasped out as he plunged into her depths as far as he could.

Her moaning continued as he began sliding in and out of her prone body. Soon she was calling out Ray's name as she moaned in pleasure. Gianni wasn't sure if she was really enjoying it or was simply putting on a show for her man but he really didn't care. He pounded away several minutes before he motioned for Bernie to get closer. Standing on his knees between her legs he continued plunging into her as he began squeezing her now bouncing breast. He pinched her nipples drawing more moans from the captive young woman. With Bernie now standing next to him snapping stills with the digital camera, having turned off the flash, Gianni reached out and took Bernie's hand and guided it to the bouncing breast.

Soon Gianni was standing on his knees driving into Debra with all his might, hands on his hips, while on one side a video camera caught the ordeal for posterity, Bernie stood on the other side groping her lovely chest as she rocked under the wild thrusting she was receiving. Gianni felt his climax nearing and pulled from her cunt backing out from her and motioning for Bernie to stop his groping.

"Oh God Ray don't stop just finish. Oh Ray finish me please." She said wantonly.

Both men stood back from the bed and looked down at the beautiful site before them as she panted and rocked back and forth trying to reposition herself on her now sore cuffed wrists. Bernie motioned to Gianni and silently mouthed he wanted to switch. Gianni, winded from his time with Debra, nodded in agreement.

Bernie worked quickly for a man of his size quickly undressing and moving to the exhausted woman on the bed. He lifted her from the bed and moved her to the side. Next he climbed on the bed and lay in the middle. Now flat on his back he reached over and took her leg pulling it across his waist he then worked her up to straddle him and his already raging hard on. Gianni worked the digital camera capturing the moment Bernie finally sank his cock into her now dripping womanhood. Debra had pleaded with "Ray" to just finish it the other way while Bernie struggled to work her into position but finally he had her straddling his waist his cock now buried in her. He grabbed her chest and started trying to move her up and down on his shaft.

Much to Bernie's embarrassment Debra began to complain to him how it was better the other way. Gianni just smiled at the news, he tired of snapping the same pictures over and over so he wandered into the open closet. Inside he found the DVD player box Debra had mentioned and quietly opened it. Inside he found stacks of nude pictures of Debra in various poses as well as two unmarked tapes. He had seen enough and quietly closed the box and placed it in the hall. He returned to see Bernie had finished with the poor woman. He watched as Bernie pushed her off him and climbed off the bed. Bernie had worked up a hell of sweat in his short time with Debra and looked like he might pass out.

Gianni knew he couldn't just climb back on for more just yet since the idiot Bernie had obviously ejaculated in their victim. Wanting to keep her thinking it was Ray Gianni moved into action taking her breast into his mouth.

"Ray can you please let me go my arms are sore..." she started to complain her voice now heavy with disappointment. A rough bite on her nipple causing a shriek of pain and then came silence. He continued sucking her breast spending ten minutes manipulating her mammary and enjoying every minute of it. He kissed, licked, pinched, sucked and occasionally lovingly bit her now rock hard nipples over and over again. Taking his time studying every square inch of her glorious chest now able to see and study them as he never dreamt he could.

Finally content he had waited long enough he pulled her up and flipped her over with her ass now sticking up he saw the body oil on the dresser and motioned for Bernie to bring it to him as he groped her soft ass checks. Taking the now open oil from Bernie he poured a liberal amount in his free hand and then handed the oil back to Bernie. Slapping both hands together above her ass he began rubbing his hands together working the oil in and warming it up. Then his hands went to her ass. Debra jumped when his oiled hands made contact with her ass.

"Ray what are you doing?" she said in a soft voice her head buried in the mattress.

Gianni paid her no attention and continued rubbing in the oil moving his hands in circles around her ass. He slowly oiled the cheeks of her ass then the backs of her legs before then moving between her legs. He methodically worked the oil in small circular movements watching her skin shine after moving over it with the oil. As his hand worked between her thighs he couldn't help but push into the now puffy lips of her cunt. He noted she still looked excited her soft mound a bright red covered in her juices mixed with the semen deposited by Bernie earlier. Having now worked all the oil into her skin he slipped two fingers inside her folds making a C with his fingers, he withdrew the digits slowly. Debra let out a long low howl as his fingers withdrew from her well used womanhood now coated in her juices mixed with what she thought was Rays cum. Gianni then moved his right hand in front of the video camera showing the goo pooled in his coated fingers he then took his left index finger and slid it quickly into her puckered asshole while moving his right hand to her mouth.

Debra opened her mouth wide in shock at the unexpected intrusion to her sphincter. As she started to scream the two slimy fingers forced their way into her mouth. This new shock caused her to gag as the two fingers delivered their vile contents to her mouth wiping their content across her tongue before rubbing around the inside of her mouth. She tried to cry out for Ray to stop but the intrusion continued. Hoping to stop the intrusion she bit down on the fingers and closed her mouth. Gianni quickly pulled his fingers away as she closed her mouth. Closing her mouth her lips cleaned much of the slime from his fingers.

Gianni still had his left finger buried in her sphincter as she began to protest his treatment of her. Gianni looked to Bernie and mouthed the word gag as he continued to work his finger around in her asshole. He pulled his left finger out just as he worked his two slimy right fingers in the pink rose of her ass. She begged him to stop just as Bernie returned with the rubber ball gag. Gianni pulled his fingers free and took the gag from his friend.

"What the hell has gotten into you Ray? This has gone far enough you've had your fun now let me go." Debra said as she tried to flip around and hide her ass from any further assault. Gianni would have none of it as he held her by the ass not allowing her to escape his grasp. He lowered down and used his elbows to hold her as he used his hands to position the gag in front of her mouth.

Debra continued pleading with Ray to stop until Gianni forced the rubber ball into her mouth. He then pulled the leather straps behind her head and buckled it in place gagging the young mother. Debra's struggles continued as she tried with all her might to roll over until she felt her ass cheeks pulled apart and the rigid cock spearing into her slick folds. She went limp under Gianni as he pounded into her cunt a second time working his cock as deep into her from behind as he could. The sounds emanating from Debra went from those of anger, frustration, pain and suffering to the grunts and mewling of erotic bliss.

Gianni went on for over five minutes varying his tempo from fast violent thrust to slow long loving movements but it was clear Debra enjoyed it the deeper and harder he drove into her. The long delay between his times with her had allowed him a much greater staying power than he would have normally had. He pounded her in the doggy position for all she was worth pulling her cuffed arms up and wrapping the costume around the cuffs before reaching around at her heaving chest, pinching her nipples and squeezing her chest and then pushing her head back into the pillow and grabbing her hips. He pulled her up and forced her back down repeatedly for Bernie and the camera as he used her. He eventually tired of this but not before driving Debra to her second orgasm, finding her cunt slick with her juices and Bernie's cum he set his sights on another of her treasures.

Ready to complete his conquest of the beauty under him he pulled his rigid member free of her cunt as he pulled her ass cheeks further apart, Gianni took a moment to stare at her puckered ring then took a moment to line up his weapon before he drove forcefully into her ass. Debra bucked and jumped under him trying to escape this new invasion. She was screaming from behind the gag wailing away with each thrust. The more she struggled or louder she wailed the harder Gianni drove into her.

Her struggles excited him to the point that he hammered into her with a total abandon and let out a bellow of excitement. Bernie quickly smacked him and motioned him to shut up and keep quiet. Gianni then turned his attention back to Debra and began smacking her on the ass as he violently drove into her over and over again. His lustful plunging in and out of her ass continued for almost ten minutes before he finally erupted inside her spewing his seed deep into her bowels. Finally spent he collapsed on top of her reaching around her and grabbing her swaying breast before pulling her over with him, his cock still buried in her ass.

He held her on his chest, his arms holding her legs apart, as Bernie got several close up shots, with each camera, of Debra with a cock buried in her ass. With the camera work done Gianni dropped her back to the bed and climbed off. He knew his time would be drawing to close and got dressed.

He looked down at her one last time smiling as he went to leave slapping each of her breasts roughly before kissing them tenderly and leaving. Looking back he saw his cum oozing out of her ass between her still spread legs.

Bernie stayed in the room, the lights out, waiting for Ray and Andy to return, He took his time to inspect every inch of Debra's body using the night vision on the camcorder and a small flash light. By the time Andy had made it up stairs Bernie had turned the lights back on and had coated every inch of her body in oil and rubbed her chest raw. She had struggled to push the blindfolds off by pushing her head into the bed but Bernie made sure they had stayed on. Her grunts and moans of protest got loader and stronger as she tried futilely to beg for release. Her protest had led Bernie to begin wiping the cum oozing from her body over the shiny ball gag in her mouth making her squirm even more.

Andy finally made it upstairs into the bedroom sporting a camera of his own and a bag of his own. He spent several minutes taking in the site of the oiled up and vulnerable Debra before quickly stripping off his clothes and diving in. He had mounted her and began thrusting his raging hard cock into her like a rabid animal, the fact he was getting sloppy seconds meant nothing to him. He pummeled her with all his might till he finally spasmed and began spewing his seed into her. He went stiff on top of her as his seed mixed with Bernie's in the unsuspecting woman's vagina.

Andy took a few more moments to caress and rub the oiled body of the woman he had just used before his dick finally slipped out of the poor woman. He motioned for Bernie to get a shot of her cunt after just being pounded again. After photographing the results of the men's activities that night Bernie spent several minutes gathering the items they had brought and quietly sneaking out of the room. Andy gave his friend twenty minutes to get the cab called and get out of the house. He used that twenty minutes to pummel Debra's cunt and ass with a life like black dildo he had brought with him. Checking the time he readied himself to leave. He uncuffed one of her hands dropping the key in the other, and bolted for the door turning the light off as he left her struggling to get her wrist free of her bunched up clothes and free herself.
